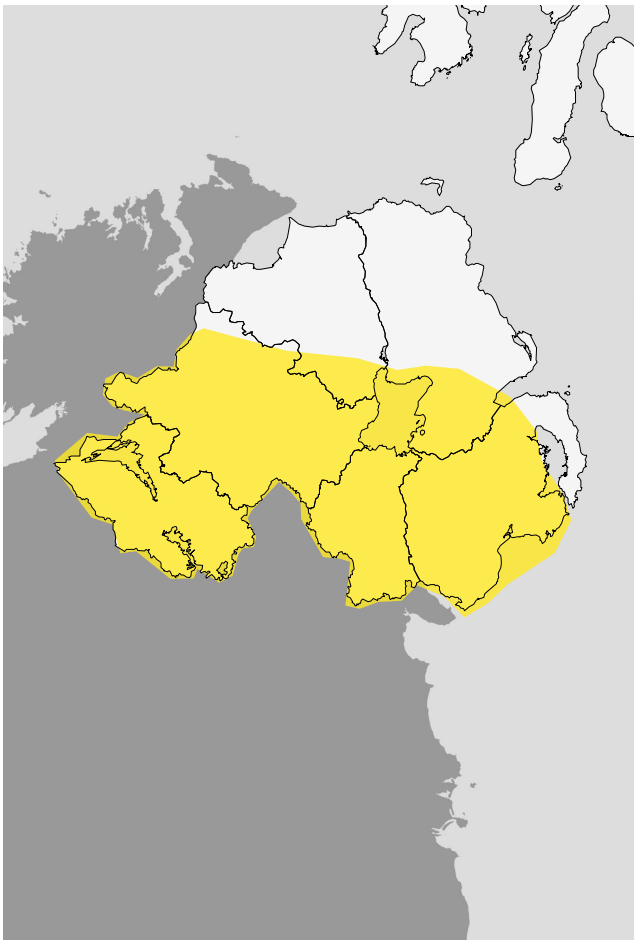
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
06:00 Mon 21 Nov 2022 and
23:59 Mon 21 Nov 2022



Heavy rain may cause some flooding and disruption to travel during Monday.

What to expect

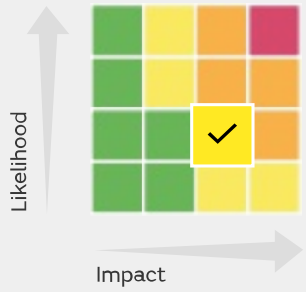
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Some communities may be cut off by flooded roads
- Delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible
- Possible power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses
- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings

Further details

A band of rain will become slow moving across parts of Northern Ireland during Monday. There remains some uncertainty as to exactly where this happens, but many places in the warning area are likely to have 15-25 mm of rain with some areas seeing more widely 20-40 mm and a few places in the south, particularly over hills, seeing 50 mm or so.

Reason for update

The warning has been moved into the medium impact column given a slight increase in rainfall totals but continuing uncertainty over exact locations affected.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
